Exodus – The Revealing of God’s Glory and His Design for the Chosen

“Repetitious: Laborious or Loving” – Exodus 12:43-13:10

I. Introduction.

A. Reiteration: Repeating words and phrases.

B. Passover and the Exodus account.

1. Major reiteration.

C. The text.

II. Exposition.

A. Verse 43.

1. “No foreigner” – a non-Israelite. Deuteronomy 23:20.

B. Verses 44-45.

1. Only one exception regarding outsiders –

a. A slave who has been circumcised – Genesis 17:12-13.

C. Verse 46.

1. Diverse interpretation on this verse.

2. Best view is whole of sacrifice is to be eaten by the whole family – John 19:36; I Corinthians 5:7.

D. Verse 47.

1. “All the congregation.” Entire congregation without exception.

E. Verses 48-49.

1. Sojourners had rights, but not a right to Passover apart from circumcision.

F. Verse 50. “Then all the sons of Israel did so.”

1. An idiom in the book of Exodus;

Ex 12:28, 12:50; 16:17; 39:32; 39:42

G. Verse 51. Fulfillment of prophecy to Abram. Gen. 15:13-14.

H. Verses 13:1-2. At first glance appears to be out of place.

I. Verses 3-5.

1. Third set of Passover laws and reiteration of promise.

J. Verses 6-7. Climax on seventh day.

K. Verses 8-10. Children must know the meaning of the holiday.

III. Points for Reflection.

A. Passover is a type which displays the pattern of salvation.

B. Passover was a deliverance of the whole just as we experience deliverance to become a part of the whole.

C. The exclusiveness of Passover reminds us of the exclusiveness of the Lord’s table.

D. Just as circumcision gave access to the Passover feast, so too baptism provides access to communion.

E. They told their children, and we must do the same.
